JOB OPENING

Coalition for a Livable Future Seeks Program Coordinator

Coalition for a Livable Future is seeking a full-time Program Coordinator to carry out outreach, public education, organizing and advocacy activities to support CLF's initiatives. Activities include public policy analysis, coalition building, tracking legislation, and developing consensus among regional partners and decision-makers.

Founded in 1994, CLF is a coalition of over 100 organizations working together to create communities in the Portland-Vancouver area that are healthy for people and the environment. Through research, policy advocacy, and public education, CLF works to create and preserve affordable housing; protect clean water; preserve open space, wildlife habitat and farmland; create living wage jobs; provide real transportation choices; and end hunger in our community.

People of diverse backgrounds, including people of color and women, are encouraged to apply. For complete job description and instructions, visit http://clfuture.org/about/hiring/document_view <http://clfuture.org/about/hiring/document_view> .
